Information and Instructions (Love and Service - Contact Information Form)

Information about the Love and Service - Contact Information Form

The Love and Service – Contact Form – All A.A. in the Annapolis Area Intergroup (AAIG) vicinity who want to participate in service work are encouraged to complete a Love and Service – Contact Form and to forward it to the AAIG Infosys Committee.

AAIG will be using the information to update its records and/or to support services for A.A. groups within the AAIG area.

Infosys is guided by the recommendations published in the A.A. literature and A.A. Guidelines concerning anonymity. AAIG confidential records may contain a person's first and last name. With the exception of the AAIG Bulletin mailing labels, any printed Infosys document that may come into public view, will only contain the first name and last initial. Specific requests for the special handling of a person's anonymity should be sent to infosys@annapolisareaintergroup.org.

In the spirit of cooperation completed AAIG forms may be forwarded to a respective Maryland General Services (MGS) District Committee Member (DCM) and/or Special Needs Committee.

Methods of Submitting Group Information Assessment Form

Forms can be sent to AAIG Infosys in one of the following ways:

1. E-mail the form to infosys@annapolisareaintergroup.org
2. Mail to: Annapolis Area Intergroup, ATTENTION: Infosys, P.O. Box 2267, Annapolis, MD. 21401
3. Hand-deliver to the Office Desk at the Annapolis Area Intergroup (Red House), 169 Duke of Gloucester Street, Annapolis, Md. (Note: the Post office does not deliver mail to the Red House Address)
4. Fax to (410) 451-0680

Questions can be sent to infosys@annapolisareaintergroup.org

Anonymity

¹Facts about Anonymity

"Experience suggests that A.A. members:

- Respect the right of other members to maintain their own anonymity at whatever levels they wish.
- Use Last Names within the Fellowship, especially for the election of group officers and other service jobs."

²On Anonymity among A.A.'s an excerpt from "Dr. Bob and the Good Oldtimers

"As far as anonymity was concerned, we knew who we were. It wasn't only A.A., but our social life. All of our lives seemed to be spent together. We took people home with us to dry out. The Cleveland group had the names, addresses, and phone numbers of all the members." said Warren. "In fact, I remember Dr. Bob saying, 'If I got up and gave my name as Dr. Bob S., people who needed help would have a hard time getting in touch with me.'"

Warren recalled, "He [Dr. Bob] said there were two ways to break the anonymity Tradition: (1) by giving your name at the public level of press or radio; (2) by being so anonymous that you can't be reached by other drunks."
