

AAIG BULLETIN

Monthly Publication of the Annapolis Area Intergroup (AAIG)

If you are seeking help for a drinking problem, call our 24-hour hotline: 410-268-5441

"This we owe to A.A.'s future; to place our common welfare first; to keep our Fellowship united. For on A.A. unity depend our lives, and the lives of those to come..."

Responsibility Statement

I am responsible. When anyone, anywhere, reaches out for help, I want the hand of A.A. always to be there. And for that, I am Responsible.

May Newsletter

NOTICE: The Red House is temporarily closed to all but desk staff. There will be no meetings at the Red House until further notice. Announcements will be posted at annapolisareaintergroup.org

Online resources are listed on page 3.

Step 5

Admitted to God, to ourselves, and to another human being the exact nature of our wrongs.

Tradition 5

Each group's primary purpose is to carry the message to those still struggling with alcohol.

Concept 5

Throughout our structure, a traditional "Right of Appeal" ought to prevail, so that minority opinion will be heard and personal grievances receive careful consideration.

AA GRAPEVINE

The International Journal of Alcoholics Anonymous

FREE - FREE - FREE

Due to the current changing health situation, many AA meetings across the U.S. and Canada are finding it safer to close. To help members during this time, we are giving everyone free access for a limited period to our 2020 Grapevine (January through May) and La Viña (Jan/Feb through May/June) print issues.
